

Early Greek Philosophy

By John Burnet, with Burnet's notes

Check out the Section Index

- INTRODUCTION
- NOTE ON THE SOURCES
- CHAPTER I. THE MILESIAN SCHOOL
- CHAPTER II. SCIENCE AND RELIGION
- CHAPTER III. HERAKLEITOS OF EPHESOS
- CHAPTER IV. PARMENIDES OF ELEA
- CHAPTER V. EMPEDOKLES OF AKRAGAS
- CHAPTER VI. ANAXAGORAS OF KLAZOMENAI
- CHAPTER VII. THE PYTHAGOREANS
- CHAPTER VIII. THE YOUNGER ELEATICS
- CHAPTER IX. LEUKIPPOS OF MILETOS
- CHAPTER X. ECLECTICISM AND REACTION

Created for Peithô's Web from Early Greek Philosophy by John Burnet, 3rd edition (1920). London: A & C Black Ltd. Burnet's footnotes have been converted to endnotes. Greek unicode text entered with Peithô's Younicoder.

Page design by Larry Clark and Agathon. Peithô's Web gratefully acknowledges the assistance of Anthony Beavers in the creation of this web edition of Burnet. Please send comments to:

agathon@classicpersuasion.org

Early Greek Philosophy

By John Burnet, with Burnet's notes

Section Index

INTRODUCTION

1. The Cosmological Character of Early Greek Philosophy
2. The Traditional View of the World
3. Homer
4. Hesiod
5. Cosmogony
6. General Characteristics of Greek Cosmology
7. Physis
8. Motion and Rest
9. The Secular Character of Ionian Science
10. Alleged Oriental Origin of Philosophy
11. Egyptian Mathematics
12. Babylonian Astronomy
13. The Scientific Character of the Early Greek Cosmology
14. Schools of Philosophy

NOTE ON THE SOURCES

A. PHILOSOPHERS

1. Plato
2. Aristotle
3. Stoics
4. Sceptics
5. Neoplatonists

B. DOXOGRAPHERS

6. The Doxographi Graeci
7. The "Opinions" of Theophrastus
8. Doxographers

I. DOXOGRAPHERS PROPER

9. The Placita and Stobaeus
10. Aetios
11. The Vetusta Placita
12. Cicero

II. BIOGRAPHICAL DOXOGRAPHERS

13. Hippolytus
14. The Stromateis
15. "Diogenes Laertios"
16. Patristic Doxographies

C. BIOGRAPHERS

17. Successions
18. Hermippos
19. Satyros
20. "Diogenes Laertios"

D. CHRONOLOGISTS

21. Eratosthenes and Apollodoros

CHAPTER I. THE MILESIAN SCHOOL

1. Miletus and Lydia
2. Origin
3. The Eclipse Foretold by Thales
4. Date of Thales
5. Thales in Egypt
6. Thales and Geometry
7. Thales as a Politician
8. Uncertain Character of the
16. The Primary Substance is Infinite
17. The Innumerable Worlds
18. "Eternal Motion" and the Dinê
19. Origin of the Heavenly Bodies
20. Earth and Sea
21. The Heavenly Bodies
22. Animals

- |   |                                      |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| 9. The Cosmology of Thales  | 23. The Life of Anaximenes           |
| 10. Water   | 24. His Book                         |
| 11. Theology  | 25. Theory of the Primary Substances |
| 12. The Life of Anaximander                                       | 26. Rarefaction and Condensation     |
| 13. Theophrastus on Anaximander's Theory of the Primary Substance | 27. Air                              |
| 14. The Primary Substance is Not One of the Elements              | 28. The World Breathes               |
| 15. Aristotle's Account of the Theory                             | 29. The Parts of the World           |
|   | 30. Innumerable Worlds               |
|   | 31. Influence of Anaximenes          |

CHAPTER II. SCIENCE AND RELIGION

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 32. Ionia and the West                                | 47. The Figures                           |
| 33. The Delian Religion                               | 48. Triangular, Square and Oblong Numbers |
| 34. Orphicism   | 49. Geometry and Harmonics                |
| 35. Philosophy as a Way of Life                       | 50. Incommensurability                    |
| 36. Relation of Religion and Philosophy               | 51. Proportion and Harmony                |
| 37. Character of the Tradition                        | 52. Things Are Numbers                    |
| 38. Life of Pythagoras                                | 53. Cosmology                             |
| 39. The Order   | 54. The Heavenly Bodies                   |
| 40. Downfall of the Order                             | 55. Life of Xenophanes                    |
| 41. Want of Evidence as to the Teaching of Pythagoras | 56. Poems                                 |
| 42. Transmigration                                    | 57. The Fragments                         |
| 43. Abstinence  | 58. The Heavenly Bodies                   |
| 44. Akousmata   | 59. Earth and Water                       |
| 45. Pythagoras as a Man of Science                    | 60. Finite or Infinite                    |
| 46. Arithmetic  | 61. God and the World                     |
|   | 62. Monotheism or Polytheism              |

CHAPTER III. HERAKLEITOS OF EPHEOS

- |                                  |  |
|----------------------------------|--|
| 63. Life of Herakleitos          | 74. Sleeping and Waking                            |
| 64. His Book                     | 75. Life and Death                                 |
| 65. The Fragments                | 76. The Day and the Year                           |
| 66. The Doxographical Tradition  | 77. The Great Year                                 |
| 67. The Discovery of Herakleitos | 78. Did Herakleitos Teach a General Conflagration? |
| 68. The One and the Many         | 79. Strife and "Harmony"                           |
| 69. Fire                         | 80. Correlation of Opposites                       |
| 70. Flux                         | 81. The Wise                                       |
| 71. The Upward and Downward Path | 82. Theology                                       |
| 72. Measure for Measure          | 83. Ethics of Herakleitos                          |
| 73. Man                          |  |

CHAPTER IV. PARMENIDES OF ELEA

- |   |                           |
|---|---------------------------|
| 84. Life of Parmenides                    | 91. The Dualist Cosmology |
| 85. The Poem                              | 92. The Heavenly Bodies   |
| 86. "It Is"                               | 93. The Stephanæ          |
| 87. The Method of Parmenides              | 94. The Goddess           |
| 88. Parmenides, the Father of Materialism | 95. Physiology            |
|   | 96. Alcmaeon of Croton    |

- 89. General Characteristics of Greek Cosmology
- 90. The Beliefs of "Mortals"

CHAPTER V. EMPEDOKLES OF AKRAGAS

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>97. Pluralism</li> <li>98. Date of Empedocles</li> <li>99. Empedocles as a Politician</li> <li>100. Empedocles as a Religious Teacher</li> <li>101. Rhetoric and Medicine</li> <li>102. Relation to Predecessors</li> <li>103. Death</li> <li>104. Writings</li> <li>105. The Remains</li> <li>106. Empedocles and Parmenides</li> <li>107. The "Four Roots"</li> <li>108. Strife and Love</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>109. Mixture and Separation</li> <li>110. The Four Periods</li> <li>111. Our World the Work of Strife</li> <li>112. Formation of the World by Strife</li> <li>113. The Sun, Moon, Stars, and Earth</li> <li>114. Organic Combinations</li> <li>115. Plants</li> <li>116. Evolution of Animals</li> <li>117. Physiology</li> <li>118. Perception</li> <li>119. Theology and Religion</li> </ul> |
|--|---|

CHAPTER VI. ANAXAGORAS OF KLAZOMENAI

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>120. Date</li> <li>121. Early Life</li> <li>122. Relation to the Ionic School</li> <li>123. Anaxagoras at Athens</li> <li>124. The Trial</li> <li>125. Writings</li> <li>126. The Fragments</li> <li>127. Anaxagoras and His Predecessors</li> <li>128. "Everything in Everything"</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>129. The Portions</li> <li>130. Seeds</li> <li>131. "All Things Together"</li> <li>132. Nous</li> <li>133. Formation of the Worlds</li> <li>134. Innumerable Worlds</li> <li>135. Cosmology</li> <li>136. Biology</li> <li>137. Perception</li> </ul> |
|--|--|

CHAPTER VII. THE PYTHAGOREANS

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>138. The Pythagorean School</li> <li>139. Philolaus</li> <li>140. Plato and the Pythagoreans</li> <li>141. The "Fragments of Philolaus"</li> <li>142. The Problem</li> <li>143. Aristotle on the Numbers</li> <li>144. The Elements of Numbers</li> <li>145. The Numbers Spatial</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>146. The Numbers as Magnitudes</li> <li>147. The Numbers and the Elements</li> <li>148. The Dodecahedron</li> <li>149. The Soul a "Harmony"</li> <li>150. The Central Fire</li> <li>151. The Antichthon</li> <li>152. The Harmony of the Spheres</li> <li>153. Things Likenesses of Numbers</li> </ul> |
|--|---|

CHAPTER VIII. THE YOUNGER ELEATICS

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>154. Relation to Predecessors</li> <li>155. Life of Zeno</li> <li>156. Writings</li> <li>157. Dialectic</li> <li>158. Zeno and Pythagoreanism</li> <li>159. What Is the Unit?</li> <li>160. The Fragments</li> <li>161. The Unit</li> <li>162. Space</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>163. Motion</li> <li>164. Life of Melissus</li> <li>165. The Fragments</li> <li>166. Theory of Reality</li> <li>167. Reality Spatially Infinite</li> <li>168. Opposition to Ionians</li> <li>169. Opposition to Pythagoreans</li> <li>170. Opposition to Anaxagoras</li> </ul> |
|--|---|

CHAPTER IX. LEUKIPPOS OF MILETOS

- |  |                                       |
|--|---------------------------------------|
| 171. Leucippus and Democritus          | 16. The Eternal Motion                |
| 172. Theophrastus on the Atomic Theory | 17. The Weight of the Atoms           |
| 173. Leucippus and the Eleatics        | 18. The Vortex                        |
| 174. Atoms                             | 19. The Earth and the Heavenly Bodies |
| 175. The Void                          | 20. Perception                        |
| 176. Cosmology                         | 21. Importance of Leucippus           |
| 177. Relation to Ionic Cosmology       |                                       |

CHAPTER X. ECLECTICISM AND REACTION

- |                                    |                         |
|------------------------------------|-------------------------|
| 184. The "Bankruptcy of Science"   | 189. Cosmology          |
| 185. Moisture                      | 190. Animals and Plants |
| 186. Date of Diogenes of Apollonia | 191. Anaxagoreans       |
| 187. Writings                      | 192. Cosmology          |
| 188. The Fragments                 | 193. Conclusion         |

Created for Peithô's Web from Early Greek Philosophy by John Burnet, 3rd edition (1920). London: A & C Black Ltd. Burnet's footnotes have been converted to chapter endnotes. Greek unicode text entered with Peithô's Younicoder.

Web design by Larry Clark and RSBoyes (Agathon). Peithô's Web gratefully acknowledges the assistance of Anthony Beavers in the creation of this web edition of Burnet. Please send comments to:

agathon@classicpersuasion.org